

QUEENSLAND POLICE UNION

PART-TIME MEMBERSHIP DUES

Any member who works part-time hours is entitled to a reduction in Union Dues.

Members working part-time must contact the QPUE and make application to pay the part-time rate. Members are required to complete a form advising the QPUE of the hours worked per fortnight and supply a letter or documentation from the Queensland Police Service verifying the part-time hours being worked. One of our elected officials will approve the application and it will be processed accordingly. Union Dues for part-time workers are calculated according to the following:

QPUE Membership Rule 6.2.1:-

"The annual Membership Fee payable by part-time police officers shall be seventy two percent (72%) of the membership fee as set out in 6.1.1."

QPUE Membership Rule 6.2.2:-

"The annual membership fee payable by part-time non sworn members shall be 72% of the membership fee as set out in 6.1.3."

QPUE Membership Rule 6.2.3:

"Part time membership fees for all members are only accessible where the part time duty is to be continuous for 12 weeks or more."

QPUE Membership Rule 6.2.4 states:-

"It shall be the responsibility of any Member working part-time to notify the QPUE for the purpose of a reduction in dues and further that any Member who fails to notify the QPUE of such part-time duties shall not be entitled to any reimbursement. The onus shall be upon any Member returning to full-time duties from part-time duties to notify the QPUE of such change."

A Member who fails to do shall remain unfinancial until the outstanding dues are paid. Part-time members have 30 days from the date of change to notify the QPUE."
