

Queensland Police Union - National Youth Crime Symposium

16 April 2021

Day 2 – Brisbane Convention and Exhibition Centre

Queensland Liberal National Party address

Shadow Minister for Police and Corrective Services, Shadow Minister for Fire and Emergency Services, Shadow Minister for Rural and Regional Affairs, Dale Last MP

9:15am – 9:30am Brisbane Convention and Exhibition Centre

Overview:

Dale Last MP will outline for the symposium a new Youth Justice Policy.

Lecture: Overview of the regulatory regime for Privacy.

Mr Lemm Ex – Office of the Queensland Information Commissioner

9:30am – 10:00am Brisbane Convention and Exhibition Centre

Overview:

Lemm Ex is Principal Privacy Officer in the Queensland Office of the Information Commissioner. Lemm has worked as a government lawyer for over 22 years in the fields of discrimination, human rights, privacy and child safety. Lemm also has worked extensively in the area of privacy starting out with the Commonwealth Office of the Privacy Commissioner before moving onto various senior privacy positions in Queensland State Government.

Lemm will provide an overview of privacy regime to provide context on the limitations privacy requirements can place on decision making.

Session 1 – Reform

10:00am – 11:00am Brisbane Convention and Exhibition Centre

Overview:

This session is devoted to a panel discussion around reform and will discuss the concept of non-legal and legal reforms from the perspectives of the panellists.

Panel Discussion: Perspectives on Youth Crime

ROOM: P10 & 11 Brisbane Convention and Exhibition Centre	Led by Dr Fiona Reynolds the panel will discuss the experiences of the panellist and get their reflections on a reform agenda for youth crime.  Mr Brendon McMahon APM – Retired Senior Sergeant and Former Senior Government Co-ordinator  Ms Marni Manning - Director Intelligence, Queensland Police Service  Mr Matthew Noffs – CEO, Ted Noffs Foundation
The Symposium will hear from panellists and will be encouraged to participate in a discussion about reform through framed through the experiences of the panellists.

Session 2 – Youth, Crime and options

11:20am – 12:30pm Brisbane Convention and Exhibition Centre

Overview:

This session is an opportunity for symposium attendees to participate in discussions about youth crime and consider how we can think about reducing youth crime and diverting young offenders

Panel Discussion: Perspectives on Youth Crime

ROOM: P10 & 11 Brisbane Convention and Exhibition Centre	Facilitator - Dr. Fiona Reynolds  Cr Jacinta Price – Deputy Mayor Alice Springs Town Council  Mr Warren Mundine AO – Chairman and Managing Director, Nyungga Black Group Pty Ltd  Mr Mick Barnes – General Secretary, Queensland Police Union  Deputy Commissioner Paul Taylor APM - Deputy Commissioner Regional Queensland, Queensland Police
Led by Dr Fiona Reynolds, the panel will discuss the experiences and insights of panel members about Youth Crime.

Session 3 – Policy Makers

1:30pm – 2:30pm Brisbane Convention and Exhibition Centre

Overview:

This session is an opportunity for symposium guests to hear about the policy frameworks in place and to hear from policy makers about some of the issues in the space.

Panel Discussion: Policy and Perspectives

ROOM: P10 & 11 Brisbane Convention and Exhibition Centre	Led by Dr Fiona Reynolds the panel will discuss the work being undertaken by the Youth Justice Taskforce.  Facilitator - Dr. Fiona Reynolds  Assistant Commissioner Cheryl Scanlon APM, Queensland Police  Mr Michael Drane, Senior Executive Director, Department of Children, Youth Justice and Multicultural Affairs.  Privacy Commissioner Philip Green
Led by Dr Fiona Reynolds the panel will discuss the work being undertaken by the Youth Justice Taskforce. We will hear about the work of the taskforce, the challenges and discuss the privacy ramifications.  Attendees in this panel discussion will have an opportunity to hear from Queensland Government officials working on the Youth Justice Taskforce and share their views and ask questions.

Workshop: Healthy communities, addiction services and early intervention?

ROOM: P08 Brisbane Convention and Exhibition Centre	Workshop – Healthy communities, addiction services and early intervention  With Queensland Network of Alcohol and Other Drug Agencies Ltd CEO Rebecca Lang, and Dr Cheneal Puljović University of Queensland
Attendees in this workshop will discuss the complexities of policy making in relation to addiction services, healthy communities and early interventions. Led by Rebecca Land and Dr Cheneal Puljović attendees can sink their teeth into the nuance of this issue.

Turning Policy into Action: The Political Perspective

2:30pm – 3:30pm Brisbane Convention and Exhibition Centre

Overview:

Over the two days, we have shared our different perspectives on the issue of youth offending, identified key themes as they emerged and found some common ground.

The final panel discussion is an opportunity for the political parties to offer their insights into youth crime, respond to the themes and outline what they see as the way forward.

The discussion will follow the run sheet below:

Time	Overview
2:30pm	Dr Fiona Reynolds to Introduce the Speakers  Speakers will be given 5 minutes to provide an update on their policy position with respect to the subject matter of the symposium.
2:35pm	Minister Ryan speaks
2:40pm	Dale Last MP speaks
2:45pm	Senator Hanson speaks
2:50pm	Dr Reynolds gives an overview of the themes that have emerged and encourages the audience to frame the discussion with the politicians as an opportunity to finalise the themes and give our politicians a base on which to build policy
3:00pm	Dr Reynolds facilitates questions from the audience to Politicians
3:24pm	Politicians are given 2 minutes to close their remarks.
3:30pm	Dr Reynolds closes the discussion and the session.

Queensland Police Union - National Youth Crime Symposium

16 April 2021

Day 2 – Brisbane Convention and Exhibition Centre

Queensland Liberal National Party address

Shadow Minister for Police and Corrective Services, Shadow Minister for Fire and Emergency Services, Shadow Minister for Rural and Regional Affairs, Dale Last MP

9:15am – 9:30am Brisbane Convention and Exhibition Centre

Overview:

Dale Last MP will outline for the symposium a new Youth Justice Policy.

Lecture: Overview of the regulatory regime for Privacy.

Mr Lemm Ex – Office of the Queensland Information Commissioner

9:30am – 10:00am Brisbane Convention and Exhibition Centre

Overview:

Lemm Ex is Principal Privacy Officer in the Queensland Office of the Information Commissioner. Lemm has worked as a government lawyer for over 22 years in the fields of discrimination, human rights, privacy and child safety. Lemm also has worked extensively in the area of privacy starting out with the Commonwealth Office of the Privacy Commissioner before moving onto various senior privacy positions in Queensland State Government.

Lemm will provide an overview of privacy regime to provide context on the limitations privacy requirements can place on decision making.

Session 1 – Reform

10:00am – 11:00am Brisbane Convention and Exhibition Centre

Overview:

This session is devoted to a panel discussion around reform and will discuss the concept of non-legal and legal reforms from the perspectives of the panellists.

Panel Discussion: Perspectives on Youth Crime

ROOM: P10 & 11 Brisbane Convention and Exhibition Centre	Led by Dr Fiona Reynolds the panel will discuss the experiences of the panellist and get their reflections on a reform agenda for youth crime.  Mr Brendon McMahon APM – Retired Senior Sergeant and Former Senior Government Co-ordinator  Ms Marni Manning - Director Intelligence, Queensland Police Service  Mr Matthew Noffs – CEO, Ted Noffs Foundation
The Symposium will hear from panellists and will be encouraged to participate in a discussion about reform through framed through the experiences of the panellists.

Session 2 – Youth, Crime and options

11:20am – 12:30pm Brisbane Convention and Exhibition Centre

Overview:

This session is an opportunity for symposium attendees to participate in discussions about youth crime and consider how we can think about reducing youth crime and diverting young offenders

Panel Discussion: Perspectives on Youth Crime

ROOM: P10 & 11 Brisbane Convention and Exhibition Centre	Facilitator - Dr. Fiona Reynolds  Cr Jacinta Price – Deputy Mayor Alice Springs Town Council  Mr Warren Mundine AO – Chairman and Managing Director, Nyungga Black Group Pty Ltd  Mr Mick Barnes – General Secretary, Queensland Police Union  Deputy Commissioner Paul Taylor APM - Deputy Commissioner Regional Queensland, Queensland Police
Led by Dr Fiona Reynolds, the panel will discuss the experiences and insights of panel members about Youth Crime.

Session 3 – Policy Makers

1:30pm – 2:30pm Brisbane Convention and Exhibition Centre

Overview:

This session is an opportunity for symposium guests to hear about the policy frameworks in place and to hear from policy makers about some of the issues in the space.

Panel Discussion: Policy and Perspectives

ROOM: P10 & 11 Brisbane Convention and Exhibition Centre	Led by Dr Fiona Reynolds the panel will discuss the work being undertaken by the Youth Justice Taskforce.  Facilitator - Dr. Fiona Reynolds  Assistant Commissioner Cheryl Scanlon APM, Queensland Police  Mr Michael Drane, Senior Executive Director, Department of Children, Youth Justice and Multicultural Affairs.  Privacy Commissioner Philip Green
Led by Dr Fiona Reynolds the panel will discuss the work being undertaken by the Youth Justice Taskforce. We will hear about the work of the taskforce, the challenges and discuss the privacy ramifications.  Attendees in this panel discussion will have an opportunity to hear from Queensland Government officials working on the Youth Justice Taskforce and share their views and ask questions.

Workshop: Healthy communities, addiction services and early intervention?

ROOM: P08 Brisbane Convention and Exhibition Centre	Workshop – Healthy communities, addiction services and early intervention  With Queensland Network of Alcohol and Other Drug Agencies Ltd CEO Rebecca Lang, and Dr Cheneal Puljović University of Queensland
Attendees in this workshop will discuss the complexities of policy making in relation to addiction services, healthy communities and early interventions. Led by Rebecca Land and Dr Cheneal Puljović attendees can sink their teeth into the nuance of this issue.

Turning Policy into Action: The Political Perspective

2:30pm – 3:30pm Brisbane Convention and Exhibition Centre

Overview:

Over the two days, we have shared our different perspectives on the issue of youth offending, identified key themes as they emerged and found some common ground.

The final panel discussion is an opportunity for the political parties to offer their insights into youth crime, respond to the themes and outline what they see as the way forward.

The discussion will follow the run sheet below:

Time	Overview
2:30pm	Dr Fiona Reynolds to Introduce the Speakers  Speakers will be given 5 minutes to provide an update on their policy position with respect to the subject matter of the symposium.
2:35pm	Minister Ryan speaks
2:40pm	Dale Last MP speaks
2:45pm	Senator Hanson speaks
2:50pm	Dr Reynolds gives an overview of the themes that have emerged and encourages the audience to frame the discussion with the politicians as an opportunity to finalise the themes and give our politicians a base on which to build policy
3:00pm	Dr Reynolds facilitates questions from the audience to Politicians
3:24pm	Politicians are given 2 minutes to close their remarks.
3:30pm	Dr Reynolds closes the discussion and the session.